

Truth and Love

The Meeting of Science and Religion

Science without religion is lame, religion without science is blind. Albert Einstein.

Q: What is a superstition before it is a superstition?

A: The truth.

Truth has only one property: It cannot be used for any purpose.

Man is the ultimate Justification Machine.

How do you explain Mediocrity to the Mediocre?

David Nathan.